GBT WELCOMES NEW MINISTER FOR TOURISM

Dateline St. George's: Effective July 13, 2008 Grenada's Tourism industry is being led by a new Minister for Tourism. The appointment of the Honourable Peter David to serve in the capacity of Minister for Foreign Affairs and Tourism was part of the new Cabinet appointments announced following the election victory of the National Democratic Congress Party in the July 8, 2008 parliamentary elections in Grenada.

A lawyer by profession, the Honourable Minister is a graduate of Carlton University in Canada, the University of Essex in the United Kingdom, and the Hugh Wooding Law School in Trinidad & Tobago. As a practicing attorney, his legal experiences include stints in England and Wales, the USA and Grenada. He was also the Junior Minister of Information during the period 1980 to 1983.

The Grenada Board of Tourism is pleased to welcome the Honourable Peter David to the dynamic tourism sector and looks forward to working with him.
